Baseball:

The Wildcats will be busy to start the 2019 season with 5 games on tap for this week! LN will take on Mt. Vernon today in the home opener, followed by two MIC conference games against North Central on Tuesday at home and then away on Wednesday. They will finish the week hosting Bloomington North on Saturday in a double-header.

Boys Golf:

The golfers will take this week to get additional practice in. The Cats get started next Monday with a three-way match against Park Tudor and Lawrence Central at Wood Wind Golf Course.

Softball:

The LN softball team will open their brand new facility on Tuesday, April 2nd against MIC conference rival North Central. There will be a ribbon cutting ceremony before the game, with the first pitch scheduled for 5:30pm. The team will also host Richmond on Wednesday and Speedway on Thursday this week.

Girls Tennis:

The netters will take this week to get some additional practice in before their season starts. The Cats will start their season on April 10th at home against Noblesville.

Girls Track & Field:

The track and field team ended the indoor season at the Hoosier State Relays. Mercedes Rendell placed 4th in the state in the shot put, while the distance medley relay team of Gabby Gridler, Sarah Greer, Grace Dean and Kennedy Barlow placed 6th. The girls will run in a 3-way meet at Warren Central against WC and Chatard on Tuesday, April 2.

Boys Track & Field:

The Wildcats had two individuals place in the top 8 at the Hoosier State Relays. Joe Wills placed 7th in the 60m dash and Nathan Stone finished 1st to win the pole vault! The boys team will get their season started in a few different showcase events on April 12th.

Unified Track & Field:

The unified track team will start their season next Monday at the Ben Davis Invitational. Have a great season, Wildcats!
